Flipping the “B” Switch: Empowering Women to Redefine Their Value in Society

Deborah Barry Allen currently serves as Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) advocate for both her Zonta club and Zonta District 15. Her recent book “Flipping the B.I.T.C.H. Switch” will provide the context for this presentation, encouraging women to reevaluate the virtues of Beauty, Intelligence, Thankfulness, Charity, and Honesty to empower them to redefine their value in society.

Presenter: Deborah Barry Allen

When Life Quakes: How to Lead Yourself & Your Team in Seasons of Upheaval

In seasons of upheaval, our capacity shifts, emotions rise faster, and decision-making can get cloudy. This interactive session equips participants with grounded self-leadership tools to regulate, identify what they truly need, and strengthen the support systems that sustain people in times of uncertainty.

Presenter: Angie Lion

Remarkable Leadership in Action - explore the power of storytelling and your remarkability

Step into your leadership with purpose and spirit. Storytelling is a powerful tool that can be used to convey purpose, impact and spirit. This session will help you turn your storytelling strengths into sustainable impact – energizing clubs, inspiring others, and standing strong for human rights through everyday acts of remarkable leadership.

Presenter: Lynne Foley, OAM

When Love Hurts: The Impact of Growing Up in a Violent Home

Globally, nearly one in three women experiences physical or sexual intimate partner violence, non-partner sexual violence, or both at least once in their lives. More than five women or girls are killed every hour—one every eleven minutes—by a family member (zonta.org). This session examines the impact of childhood exposure to domestic violence and the lifelong effects of trauma. Therapeutic approaches that support healing and help survivors build resilient, meaningful lives will be discussed. Deanna will highlight how her local Zonta club partners with organizations focused on mitigation, healing, and prevention. Participants will be invited to share how their clubs advance the global mission to end gender-based violence within their communities.

Presenter: Deanna Shackelford, LCSW

Ready to Supercharge Your Country's Zonta Advocacy Impact?

Join this high-energy, interactive session to discover how Country Group Advocacy can elevate Zonta's impact at the national level. We'll begin with a concise overview of what Country Group Advocacy is and why it's a powerful strategy for advancing Zonta's mission.

Step into your leadership potential and help shape the future of advocacy in your country.

Presenters: Helen Bowie and Bobbee Cardillo

Social Media 101: The Changing Landscape and Best Practices

Social media is evolving rapidly—are you using it safely, effectively, and strategically for your club and personally? This interactive session will explore how the social media landscape is changing and what it means for Zonta clubs, districts, and individual members. We will cover practical best practices for Facebook and Instagram, along with new approaches for promoting events and engaging audiences beyond traditional platforms.

We will review the basics of personal privacy, digital tracking, and how to use social media more wisely and efficiently. Join the conversation, ask questions, and share your own tips and experiences with fellow members.

Presenter: Katherine Cleland

Her VOICE matters, Her CHOICE matters. End Period Poverty with menstrual cups

No girl should miss a day of school because of her period. Yet even in 2026, girls around the world—including in the United States—continue to miss school due to lack of menstrual products and education. Join the movement: together, we can help end period poverty in our lifetime. In this informative and engaging session, learn how menstrual cups, increasingly used worldwide since 2002, are transforming menstrual health. Presenter Deborah brings more than a decade of experience promoting menstrual health. After ten years of distributing reusable pads through Days for Girls, she now donates and distributes menstrual cups across Africa, Southeast Asia, Nepal, Central America, and the United States.

Zonta and The Fyera Foundation® Sisterhood in Action

This presentation highlights the commonalities between Zonta and The Fyera, Foundation® focusing on their shared UN development goals of gender equality, peace, and justice. Fyera's work supports Zonta's mission to build a better world for women and girls by offering a heart-centered approach that maximizes your ability to remain calm and composed even in the midst of difficulty. In this session, you will learn how to achieve physiological coherence, a state of balanced alignment that fosters creativity and the ability to solve complicated problems, both personally and professionally. The presentation highlights two action projects that Zonta members can participate in, Operation Big Sister and The Little Heart Project. Operation Big Sister empowers participants with actions to interrupt the demand for trafficked humans. The Little Heart Project aims to reduce the stigma around mental illness and prevent suicide.....one heart and a time.

Presenters: Lynne Stylianou-Jensen and Nancy Griffis

Transform Community - Women as Leaders and Decision-Makers for Sustainable Change

Women remain significantly underrepresented in climate and sustainability decision-making, despite clear evidence that inclusive leadership strengthens environmental outcomes, community resilience, and sustainable development. Climate change also disproportionately impacts women and girls, particularly in Indigenous communities and climate-vulnerable regions.

The session draws on evidence, policy frameworks, and advocacy resources developed by the intercontinental Zonta Says NOW Working Group and invites participants to reflect, share experiences, and learn from one another.

Presenters: Zonta Says NOW Working Group

Allies for Gender Equality

Learn about White Ribbon, its history and mission to end all forms of gender-based violence and discrimination, and the role of men and boys in promoting gender equality and healthy masculinities. White Ribbon's public education campaigns and resources including Boys Don't Cry, Uncomposed, I Knew All Along and Men of Quality will be highlighted.

Presenters: White Ribbon Alliance

Zonta Advocacy in Action – Speaking up for the human rights of women and girls

This session starts with a fast-paced short presentation on Zonta advocacy definition, goals, processes and tools – this will set the scene.

Then participants break into groups for an interactive hands-on exercise to design and build a Zonta advocacy campaign in the community. We will address all stages and aspects of the campaign, and at all levels (including club and district).

Together we will explore how to identify needs, strategize and plan the campaign - and address how to get Zontians involved and energized about the initiative. The process will draw on proven Zonta advocacy tools and universal approaches for advocacy work.

Presenter: Zonta International Advocacy Committee

From Logging Camps to Lecture Halls: Breaking Cycles of Conditional Worth

What happens when value is tied to what we produce, how perfectly we perform, or how obediently we conform?

Around the world, cultures of conditional worth perpetuate cycles of inequity, silence, and even violence. In this powerful, interactive session, Tressa Lacy shares her journey from laboring as a child in logging camps and surviving a life-threatening injury to becoming a university professor and nonprofit founder. Through story and reflection, we will explore where conditional value models may be shaping our personal lives, club cultures, workplaces, and advocacy efforts.

Presenter: Tressa Lacy

Educate, Advocate, Eradicate: A Blueprint for Community-Led Change, Awareness Program about Sexual Exploitation and Human Trafficking

How do you move an entire city to stand against a "hidden" crime? Join the Zonta Club of Nanaimo to discover the "KNOW MORE" model—a powerhouse collaboration between SD68, VIU, DPAC, and local MLAs that has reached over 800 students and 200+ community members. This isn't just another lecture; it is a proven roadmap for systemic impact. Attendees will gain a practical toolkit to replicate this success, featuring our unique Practicum Student Model. Learn how student leaders bring vital student perspectives to the conversation, challenging the "demand" side of exploitation and fostering peer-to-peer leadership. From organizing high-impact "Student Days" to leveraging provincial advocacy from experts like Cathy Peters, we provide the exact logistics and strategic goals needed to turn awareness into community-wide action. Join us to gain the tools to Educate, Advocate, and Eradicate exploitation in your own district/neighborhoods.

Social Media 201: AI, Privacy, and the Future of Social Platforms

Social media is changing faster than ever—and many of us are still trying to figure out how to use it safely, wisely, and efficiently. This session builds on Social Media 101 and takes a deeper look at how artificial intelligence, changing user behavior, and evolving privacy laws around the world are reshaping the way we communicate online. Together, we will explore the growth of AI-generated content, the risks of deepfakes, and how to recognize and respond to them. We will also look at shifting trends across platforms such as TikTok, LinkedIn, Reddit, Substack, and Discord, and what this increasing fragmentation means for clubs and individuals. Join us for a practical and engaging discussion that separates facts from myths and offers clear best practices while helping you maintain boundaries and protect your privacy.

Presenter: Katherine Cleland

Remarkable Leadership in Action - explore the power of storytelling and your remarkability

Remarkable Leadership in Action - Leading with storytelling, purpose, impact and spirit to strengthen clubs, sustain communities and stand for human rights. Step into your leadership with purpose and spirit. This session will help you turn your strengths into sustainable impact – energizing clubs, inspiring others, and standing strong for human rights through everyday acts of remarkable leadership. Further, the conversations with peers will engage with Zonta Spirit, and develop courage and confidence to embrace what makes you remarkable and to step into leadership roles.

Presenter: Lynne Foley, OAM

Speak Up! A Zonta Says No Interactive Session to Engage, Empower, and Energize

Join fellow Zontians for an engaging session designed to spark creativity, connection, and action. Hosted by the Zonta Says No Working Group, this interactive experience invites participants to explore how clubs can strengthen their voice and inspire change within their communities. Through storytelling, guided reflection, and collaborative activities, participants will examine how shifting language, sharing stories, and raising awareness can influence the way communities respond to violence against women and girls. The session encourages dialogue, imagination, and idea-sharing while highlighting the powerful impact of collective action. Expect a welcoming and energizing environment where participants can connect, reflect, and learn from one another. Participants will leave with inspiration and practical ideas they can take back to their clubs.

Create a “Zonta Says No” Social Media Campaign in 5 Easy Steps

A social media campaign is a very effective way for clubs to reach a large number of people with Zonta’s message about eliminating violence against women. This session will demonstrate how clubs can create an effective “Zonta Says No” social media campaign in 5 easy steps, requiring minimal time, money, and technical skills. If you have been looking for a way for your club to participate in a meaningful way in 16 Days of Activism Against Violence Against Women, this session is for you.

Participants will leave the session with the information required to create their own campaign. This will include choosing which social media platform/s to use, accessing and using Zonta graphics, hints on encouraging members and others to participate, and sharing posts widely, including using appropriate hashtags.

Presenter: Judy White

Dinner on Grouse Mountain

Grouse Mountain is also known as “The Peak of Vancouver”. A quick ride up to the top of the mountain brought spectacular views. Visitors can experience the lumberjack show and visit the animal sanctuary. The Grouse Mountain crew brought out the birds of prey, and we experienced one of the best bird shows I have ever seen!

The Keynote speaker, Sally Armstrong, gave an excellent presentation that easily held our attention. She is an internationally acclaimed journalist, bestselling author, and human rights activist. Known as a fearless war correspondent, she has spent decades reporting from the world’s front lines—including Bosnia, Somalia, Rwanda, and Afghanistan—where she was the first to bring the stories of Afghan women to global attention.

A former member of the UN International Women’s Commission and the 2019 CBC Massey Lecturer, Sally’s groundbreaking work has earned her four Amnesty International Media Awards and 11 honorary doctorates.

With the exception of that of president, two offices may be combined if consistent with club bylaws. One individual holding two offices shall be entitled to only one vote.	SECTION 6. Officers and Directors. The officers of the club shall be at least a president and a treasurer. Additional officers and directors may be required by applicable law and the club bylaws. With the exception of that of president, two offices may be combined if consistent with club bylaws. Two members may share an office if consistent with club bylaws. Each officer and director is entitled to one vote.
(a) Prerequisites. To be eligible for the office of president, a member must have been at some time a member of the club board for at least one year, except in the case of a newly chartered club.
(b) Election. At the election meeting, officers and directors shall be elected by ballot vote unless there is but one nominee for the office, in which case a voice vote may be taken. A majority vote shall elect. At the option of the club, balloting may be by mail.	(a) Election. There shall be an election meeting at least every second year. A majority vote is required to elect officers and a plurality vote to elect directors. The process shall be as specified in the club bylaws.
(c) Term of Office. The officers and directors shall assume office on 1 June. The officers shall hold office for at least one year or until their successors assume office. The officers and directors shall be limited to four consecutive years in the same office. A member who has served more than half a term shall be deemed to have served a full term in that office. At club option, a member who has served previously as an officer or director is eligible to serve in the same office again after an intermission.	(b) Term of Office. The officers and directors shall assume office on 1 June. The officers shall hold office for at least one year or until their successors assume office.
(d) Vacancies. In case of vacancy in the office of president, the vice president shall become president. Vacancies in other offices shall be filled by the club board.	(c) Vacancies. Vacancies shall be filled according to applicable law and the club bylaws.
SECTION 7. Duties of Officers. The officers of the club shall perform the duties prescribed by the club, by the bylaws and rules of procedure of Zonta International, and by the parliamentary authority adopted by the organization. The officers of the club shall perform the duties prescribed by applicable law, the Bylaws and Rules of Procedure of Zonta International, the club bylaws, and by the parliamentary authority adopted by the club.

(a) President. The president shall preside at all meetings of the club and of the board and shall be the chief executive officer of the club. Subject to approval by the board, the president shall appoint chairs of standing committees and all other committees except the Nominating Committee. The president shall be ex-officio a member of all committees except the Nominating Committee.	(a) President. The president shall communicate with Zonta International and perform such tasks as Zonta International, the district, the club or applicable law requires.
(b) Vice President. The vice president, in the absence or inability of the president, shall perform the duties of the president. The vice president may serve as chair of a committee and may be assigned other duties by the club board.
(c) Secretary. The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the meetings of the club and of the board, conduct correspondence not specifically assigned to other officers or committees and perform other duties as assigned by the club board.
(d) Treasurer. The treasurer shall be responsible for the funds of the club and shall administer them in accordance with the approved club budget. The treasurer shall make periodic reports to the board and the club. No later than 45 days after the term of office ends, the treasurer shall turn all records over to the successor.	(b) Treasurer. The treasurer shall be responsible for the funds of the club, for the payment of all dues and fees and all other duties as described in the club bylaws.
SECTION 8. Club Board. (a) How Constituted. Elected officers and directors of the club shall constitute the club board.	SECTION 8. Club Board. (a) How Constituted. Elected officers and directors of the club shall constitute the club board.
(b) Duties. The club board shall have general supervision of the affairs of the club between meetings of the club provided that none of its acts shall conflict with action taken by the club. It may act upon routine questions in carrying out established policies but shall not determine policy, authorize projects and donations or adopt the budget. It shall perform such duties as are required by the bylaws and rules or procedure of Zonta International. The Zonta Club Manual shall serve as a guideline for club operation.	(b) Duties. The club board shall perform such duties as are required by applicable law, the Bylaws and Rules of Procedure of Zonta International and the club bylaws.

(a) Z clubs and Golden Z clubs are service programs formed and sponsored by a Zonta club.

Proposed by Zonta International Bylaws and Resolutions Committee

Rationale:

The member survey driven in the 2020-2022 biennium as part of the work on Resolution #2 (to conduct an organizational review) showed that the clubs wanted more flexibility for their structure and operations. In the 2023 Strategic plan (Zonta, gender equity, and a vision for 2030 and beyond) under Goal 2.0 "Club Success/Exploring new opportunities" it says: "Zonta will simplify club governance and give clubs greater autonomy and flexibility to operate in a way that best serves the club and club members." As other changes in the governance structure will need more time, the changes for clubs can be made easily by taking away part of mandatory rules and amending the bylaws to allow sharing of club officer positions. This is practiced already and allows clubs to better adapt to their member structure. The fact that 15% of the clubs worldwide have 10 or fewer members urges the need for change. It will also allow clubs to continue as before.

Recommended for adoption by the Zonta International Board with the following rationale:

Clubs are the foundation of Zonta International, and it is vital that clubs have the flexibility to organize themselves in a way that meets the needs of their club, their members and their local communities. This is particularly important where clubs have a small number of members available for leadership roles (15% of our clubs worldwide have 10 or fewer members). Overly structured bylaws that prescribe how the clubs organize their board and committees limit flexibility. This challenge was recognized in the development of the 2030 Strategic Plan under Goal 2. 'Club Success/Exploring new opportunities.' This states "Zonta will simplify club governance and give clubs greater autonomy and flexibility to operate in a way that best serves the club and club members." The 2026-2028 Biennial Goals reinforce the Strategic Plan, stating that with the tools made available by Zonta International, the clubs critically analyze what improvements can be made within each club to align with Zonta international's strategic plan while being a motivational environment for the club members and fit for the future.

The proposed changes to Article XV Clubs, Section 4-8 and 10-12 pages 30-33 are designed to provide this flexibility to the clubs. The changes strengthen the autonomy of the clubs and enable the club to have more flexibility in how they organize themselves. The changes recognize the vital role clubs play in the overall organization and are therefore best considered as a whole package of changes rather than as individual changes to each section.

PROPOSED RESOLUTIONS

1. Resolution regarding the Women in STEM Award.

Proposed by District 14, District 20, and District 30 (with identical text)

The Women in STEM Award should be continued as an annual education award on club, district, and international level for women in all STEM fields. Instead of a defined age group (currently 18-35 years) it shall be related to enrolled students from second year of an undergraduate program through the final year of a master's program.

Rationale:

The Women in STEM Award, former Women in Technology Scholarship, was set up as a pilot program for four biennia because women are still largely underrepresented in technology and other STEM fields. To give women equal opportunities as men in technological developments, Zonta launched this pilot scholarship program in 2018. In 2020 the Scholarship was limited to international applications only and in 2022 it became a bi-annual district award and was expanded to STEM fields. In 2024 it continued as a bi-annual award with 16 international awards for the applicants of the 32 districts and expanded eligibility for applicants with finished education. Women are still underrepresented in all engineering and STEM fields. The award, former scholarship, has already demonstrated a positive effect at local level empowering women to step into male-dominated technology and engineering fields. Recipients report that they are taken more seriously because of our Award. Young women educated in STEM will work in these areas and will be role models for more women to follow in their footsteps.

Within the currently defined age group applications from bachelor students, PHD candidates or start-up founders are difficult to compare and mainly unfair to those just starting their curriculum. The Zonta Women in STEM Award is the perfect complement, and a crucial addition if we want to meet the challenges of the future, to the other Zonta educational programs: Amelia Earhart Fellowship, Women in Business Leadership Award and the Young Women in Leadership Award.

Not recommended for adoption by the Zonta International Board with the following rationale:

With regards to making this award annual: The Women in STEM Award, formerly the Women in Technology Scholarship, was indeed set up as a pilot program for four biennia, with different criteria for each cycle. The international biennial Zonta Women in STEM Award, in its current version, has been carried out for only one biennium. Because the criteria have changed every biennium, the results are not fully comparable.

However, statistics about participation in this last cycle show that despite the total number of participating clubs being more or less aligned with other Zonta awards and previous scholarships, the award had a very diversified range of success in terms of participation within the districts:

- Altogether, about 16% of the clubs participated in the STEM Award.
- However, only 3 districts had strong participation with more than 10 clubs presenting candidates to their district.
- 2 districts did not participate in the Zonta Women in STEM Award.

This proposal would have impact on the budget and the award structure as a whole. Making it an annual award would mean cutting either the number of awards or the amount given in half. Since club participation was specifically relevant only in a few districts, such change would not bring equal benefit to all districts: it would penalize the majority of districts in terms of additional workload versus either less chance for the candidates to gain an award or seeing their candidate earn half the amount.

Districts and clubs where there is much attention for these awards and need to maintain continuity, visibility and momentum in promoting the award on yearly basis are free to decide to give annual awards at their level, and to forward the best eligible candidate among those to the biennial international award.

With regards to changing the eligibility to enrolled students from second year of an undergraduate program through the final year of a master's program: This amendment would reposition the award as a traditional scholarship. The current framework, however, is designed to recognize and celebrate the outstanding achievements of young women in STEM fields by acknowledging their groundbreaking research and exemplary contributions to the advancement of knowledge and innovation. Its purpose is not only to honor and support academic progress, but also to inspire future generations and to promote inclusivity and diversity across the STEM landscape, with the support of a broader group of candidates who can bring experience and expertise also in STEM careers.

Moreover, the results of the 2024–2026 cycle clearly show that the current eligibility criteria do not disadvantage students: 13 of the 16 STEM Award recipients were students.

2. Resolution regarding the Women in STEM Award and the Women in Business Leadership Award

Proposed by District 29

The international biennial awards for Zonta Women in Business Leadership Award and Zonta Women in STEM Award should each become annual awards.

Rationale:

We believe that we require annual awards to ensure that:

- We maintain continuity and visibility across many tertiary institutions, because momentum from those promoting the award from clubs and institutions is lost in the year that it is missing.
- We maintain the regularity of vital connecting mechanisms to young women, emerging leaders and Zontians of the future.
- We increase a key recruitment attraction as education of women globally attracts attention from women and business in all areas. Many District 29 awardees' citizenship has been from countries in other districts, including Peru, Mexico, Nigeria, and USA, to name a few.

We grow opportunities for clubs to be directly involved in a key Zonta strategy and build community.

Not recommended for adoption by the Zonta International Board with the following rationale:

The international biennial Zonta Women in Business Leadership and Zonta Women in STEM awards, in their current version, have been carried out for only one biennium. Statistics about participation in this first cycle show that despite the total number of participating clubs being more or less aligned with other Zonta awards and previous scholarships, the awards had a very diversified range of success in terms of participation within the districts:

- Altogether, about 14% of clubs sent candidates to the districts for the business awards, and 16% of the clubs participated in the STEM award.
- However, only 3 districts had strong participation with more than 10 clubs presenting candidates to their district (this happened in the same districts for both awards). The district proposing this resolution is among them.
- 2 districts did not participate in the Zonta Women in Business Leadership Award, and 2 other districts did not participate in the Zonta Women in STEM Award. The number of students versus young women in careers among the award recipients was 81% for the STEM award and 40% for the Business Leadership award.

With the proviso that $10K biannual awards would become $5K annual awards

This proposal would have impact on the budget and the award structure as a whole. Making them an annual award would mean either cutting the number of awards or the amount given in half. Since participation in these awards was specifically relevant only in a few districts, such change would not bring equal benefit to all districts: it would penalize their majority of districts in terms of additional workload versus either less chance for the candidates to gain an award or seeing their candidate earn half the amount.

Districts and clubs where there is much attention for these awards and need to maintain continuity, visibility and momentum in promoting the award on a yearly basis are free to decide to give annual awards at their level, and to forward the best eligible candidate among those to the biennial international award.

3. Resolution regarding the “Zonta Says NO to violence against women” Campaign

Proposed by District 27

The campaign "Zonta says NO to violence against women" shall be continued in the biennium 2026- 2028.

Rationale:

"Zonta says No" was developed in 2012 to promote Zonta's credibility and visibility, according to the goals of the biennium 2012-2014 and was successfully continued in the following biennia. The need to attract attention for Zonta's mission is an ongoing demand and should not be ended. Therefore, it is proposed that the campaign should be continued, since it helps to bring Zonta into the public consciousness and raises awareness for Zonta's mission. Besides, the campaign has a strong impact within the Zonta world. It shall be continued for the following reasons.

1. The campaign "Zonta Says No to violence against women" is a Zonta-owned instrument that will further enhance Zonta's credibility and visibility.
2. Also, it is a tool that helps all clubs to work on Zonta's mission. It combines local action with the International Service Projects run by ZI. "Zonta says No to violence against women" links the local work to ZI and helps to promote at a wider range.
3. The campaign involves all main Zonta fields of activities (Advocacy, Service, PR & Communication, UN and Council of Europe, Membership). Furthermore, it helps Zontians on all levels to get connected and work together. Consequently, the campaign supports the exchange and networking of all members within the Zonta world.
4. Many Zonta Clubs around the world already take part in "Zonta says No to violence against women". This can be seen at "zontasaysno.com". This fruitful work should not be jeopardized by discontinuing the campaign. All clubs should have the opportunity to benefit from lessons already learned.

Recommended for adoption by the Zonta International Board with the following rationale:

As the campaign is explicitly named in the 2023-2030 Strategic Plan under goal 1.0 ("Zonta will build upon the long-term success of Zonta Says NO as the campaign for our international, national and local activities for addressing gender-based violence.") no one wants to discontinue it. This makes future resolutions on this subject unnecessary.

4. Resolution regarding birthing kits.Proposed by District 23 and District 24

That Zonta International and the Zonta Foundation for women support the Birthing Kit Foundation Australia's work in assembling clean birthing kits and education projects into developing countries for the biennium 2026-2028 by creating a link on the Zonta International website to the Birthing Kit Foundation Australia website.

Rationale:

Zonta wants to build a better world for women and girls.

The UN estimates that nearly 300,000 women and girls die needlessly in childbirth from infections due directly to unclean birth environments and estimates that for each woman that dies another 30 suffer painful infections. This can be reduced by supplying a clean birthing kit.

The Zonta Birthing Kit Project, which was created and grew within Zonta in Australia and evolved into the Birthing Kit Foundation Australia (BKFA), does just this. The goal of the birthing kit is to reduce maternal and neonatal mortality and morbidity rates by providing hygienic childbirth resources in a birthing kit and childbirth education programs in the poorest countries.

Not recommended for adoption by the Zonta International Board with the following rationale:

While the International Board recognizes the good work of Birthing Kit Foundation Australia, supporting a single agency in such a way which promotes their work, could create real or perceived conflicts of interest, undermine trust among stakeholders and existing partners, and may also disadvantage other agencies doing equally valuable work.

Zonta International is committed to fairness, independence, and the equitable treatment of all agencies working to further our mission. To maintain this integrity, we cannot support, endorse, or privilege one agency over another.

It should also be noted that the Zonta International Strategic Plan to 2030 emphasizes four key pillars in advocating for gender equity: gender-based violence, education equality, climate justice and women in leadership positions. While it acknowledged that the production of birthing kits has long been a service project, its primary focus is on women's health and falls outside the four key pillars of the Strategic Plan.

Further, this request to put a link to the Birthing Kit Australia website on zonta.org could bear the risk for other agencies, partners or projects to make similar requests.

Remaining neutral ensures that our international service projects and advocacy are guided by principles, evidence, and the best interests of the communities we serve—rather than by organizational preference or alignment.

5. Resolution to declare a peace initiative by Zonta InternationalProposed by District 03

District 3 moves that in the face of the numerous armed conflicts globally, Zonta International declares a Peace Initiative for the 2026-28 biennium. The initiative will be incorporated into the existing strategic plan and implemented through existing Zonta Committees, districts, clubs and members as is appropriate given resources available. Such actions could include discussions, programs, advocating action to end wars and wartime gender-based violence, and to include women in peace-making and peace-building efforts and decisions as well as collaborating with other like-minded organizations.

Rationale:

We call on all Zontians and their contacts to take note of the devastation of the peoples of the world from persistent conflict and to call on all governments to pressure those perpetrating violence to end the devastation and harm caused by years of aggression. Additionally, we call for peace in all conflict areas, and for the restoration of human rights to all, especially to women and girls. Zonta's Objects, found in the Bylaws, emphasize justice, peace, human rights and fundamental freedoms. Zonta currently is in 64 countries, of which 14 are either experiencing armed conflict in areas of their countries or have in the recent past.

According to the International Committee of the Red Cross, there are over 120 armed conflicts around the world involving 60 countries and 120 non-state armed groups. Many of these conflicts are of a non-international character, they note, but the number has tripled since the turn of the millennium.

We note the continued deprivation of human rights of women and children, not just in Gaza, Ukraine, Tigray, and Afghanistan, but among the Rohingya in both Myanmar and Bangladesh, in Haiti, Sudan, Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) and many more places throughout the world - victims of armed conflict, suffering degradation and assault often in unspeakable forms.

Rape, assault and murder of civilians are war crimes.

Early in Zonta's history members called for peace, raising their voices and resources. In 1931 Zonta adopted a new object, calling for international friendship and peace in the ideal of service. In 1939 Zonta's members were challenged to discuss "How can women's participation in public affairs contribute to world peace?" Peace had always been at the heart of Zonta. In 1945 Zonta again called for peace action, supporting the establishment of the United Nations and rebuilding for those afflicted by World War 2.

Peace doesn't just happen; it comes through effort and commitment.

We call on Zonta International to establish peace action within the framework of the strategic plan for the 2026 Zonta International Convention and that the Convention adopt this resolution.

Not recommended for adoption by the Zonta International Board with the following rationale:

Zonta's impact is strongest when it concentrates its resources where it has established expertise, global visibility and recognized leadership, such as our Zonta Says NO campaign. Zonta Says NO to Violence Against Women and Girls, a core component of Zonta International's Strategic Plan, is explicitly focused on the eradication of all forms of gender-based violence. This includes violence against women and girls in conflict and post-conflict settings, as well as advocacy for women's participation in peace-making and peace-building processes. Zonta International has a statement on women's rights in armed conflicts and post-conflict settings. Accordingly, the proposed Zonta 2026-2028 Biennial Goals identify, as a priority area of this campaign, advocacy initiatives addressing gender-based violence against women and girls in wars and armed conflicts, recognized as an increasingly pervasive and severe violation of human rights worldwide. The Strategic Plan further emphasizes the importance of collaboration and partnerships with like-minded organizations.

While peace is essential for the realization of women's rights, establishing a broad, global peace initiative, as proposed, would expand Zonta's scope beyond its core competencies and dilute the clarity of its mission. Many international organizations are specifically designed to lead comprehensive global peace initiatives. Zonta's comparative advantage lies in applying a gender lens and advocating for women's rights within those processes, not in driving global peace frameworks on its own.

Finally, as the proposed resolution would be in effect for only two years it does not offer the time or structure needed to fully integrate a global peace initiative into Zonta's Strategic Plan. Any meaningful development, implementation or partnership building related to such an initiative would extend well beyond the resolution's lifespan. As a result, the proposal would likely create expectations that Zonta could not practically fulfil during the 2026–2028 Biennium.

Zonta International remains committed to promoting peace by doing what it does best: combatting gender-based violence, empowering women and girls, and influencing policies through targeted, mission-aligned advocacy. Through Zonta Says NO and its strategic priorities, Zonta will continue addressing the gendered consequences of war and conflict, where our voice and expertise have the greatest power and credibility. This approach ensures that Zonta's advocacy remains anchored in its mission while responding directly to the escalating violence and human rights violations faced by women and girls in conflict zones around the world.

6. Resolution regarding business meetings and voting

Proposed by District 02

The Zonta international Board shall strive to make voting at the Zonta International Convention accessible by allowing delegates and alternates to the Convention to vote through all means currently allowed by Article VI, Section 1 of the Bylaws of Zonta International.

Rationale:

Zonta International is a global organization of more than 26,000 individuals in 1,100 Zonta clubs in 64 countries. Zonta International advocates for inclusion and involvement in their meetings and conventions. Costs to attend an international meeting may be prohibitive for some members and/or clubs. Zonta International recognizes this issue and currently offers registration for virtual attendance. However, Convention delegates and alternates are denied the right to vote at Convention through remote communication. Allowing members to serve as Convention delegates and alternates remotely will increase the number of members participating in the business meetings of Convention.

Not recommended for adoption by the Zonta International Board with the following rationale:

It is best practice that the Zonta International Board retain flexibility in deciding whether the convention is held in-person, or electronically or a combination of both, based on what best serves the interests of the organization and its members, while minimizing financial risks.

The proposal requires a hybrid convention at least for the time of voting, which would increase the cost of holding the convention, further complicate planning and logistics, as well as create ongoing uncertainty about the number of in-person participants thereby creating budgeting concerns.

As noted in bylaws amendment, consideration is already being given to the best ways to engage all member clubs around the world in the decision-making processes of Zonta International.

Further, business meetings, district conferences and conventions have been a significant part of the ongoing work on renewing Zonta International's governance structures. This decision requires further consideration as part of the governance Blueprint for the Future.

7. Resolution regarding "Legacy membership" for members over the age of 85.

Proposed by Zonta International Board

Zonta International will introduce an option for a reduced membership fee for members over the age of 85 initially for the 2027-2028 membership year.

Rationale:

In recent years older members have questioned why, when they have a declining income, there is no discounted membership fee whereas there is a financial incentive for younger members (young professionals).

In consideration of this sentiment this resolution will give members over the age of 85, the option to pay Zonta International annual dues at 50% of the usual fee (similar to young professionals), lightening the economic burden for many and potentially preventing resignations.

Currently, as it is optional for Zonta members to provide a date of birth it is not possible to estimate how many members this reduced fee would apply to; and also, it is not possible to estimate the impact this option could have on reducing income for Zonta International.

This proposal is recommended to be piloted in year two of the 2026-2028 biennium.

A bylaws amendment to Article V Dues and Fees SECTION 2. Zonta International Dues and Fees would be required to permanently implement this membership option.

Recommended for adoption by the Zonta International Board.

8. Resolution regarding a pilot program for “corporate membership” for 2026-2028

Proposed by Zonta International Board

The Zonta International Board will introduce a corporate membership program as a trial for the 2026-2028 Biennium.

Corporate Membership

Under this proposal the business entity becomes a supporting member (at international level of Zonta International) paying dues on a tiered basis depending on the size of the organization:

- Small (up to 5 employees) - $500 per annum
- Medium (up to 30 employees) - $1,000 per annum
- Large (over 30 employees) - $2,000 per annum.

The entity will receive the same benefits as current supporting members; is registered on the Zonta International database; and will be required to provide a contact person to receive information from Zonta International. The entity will not be required to engage with local clubs.

Because the entity will be supporting a worthy cause, the proposal will help the corporation meet its social responsibilities without the requirement for the entity's management to attend meetings, be on the board or hold a position of authority. This membership suits entities which do not have time to be involved locally and do not want to attend conferences or contribute to decision making of the organization.

This option provides income to Zonta International but does not necessarily increase membership. Nevertheless, each corporate supporting membership establishes an ongoing communications channel that can materially increase awareness of Zonta's existence, mission, vision, and work within the corporate member's organization and wider stakeholder networks.

Recommended for adoption by the Zonta International Board with the following rationale:

To promote visibility for Zonta's mission and vision, increase membership and raise revenues in the community many not for profits are exploring membership options which engage with the corporate sector. The primary purpose of corporate membership is increasing administrative income to Zonta International through additional members.

While corporate “members” can be enthusiastic contributors, the greatest challenge is getting and keeping their attention.

For Zonta International, checks and balances against which companies are appropriate to approach for membership will need to be enacted. However, once the company has signed on to Zonta's mission, their membership may assist in establishing and maintaining a good corporate image and may encourage employees to become members in their own right.

To assist in keeping their attention, Zonta International will adopt innovative methods of engagement including encouraging the corporate members to take on special projects, and establishing corporate champions whose role is to source interested corporations or business enterprises to engage with their local club, similar to club creators.

In a nutshell, corporate membership requires energy and commitment from existing members; and there is more value if the partnership/engagement is long-term and targeted. If the value proposition of membership is strong the relationship will endure.

Before any action can be taken the following will occur:

- Development of guidelines for determining what companies could be approached and by whom,
- Development of a prospectus including a strong value proposition, and
- Appointment of a relationship manager in HQ.

The corporate membership option will run as a pilot for the 2026-2028 Biennium, commencing once supporting information and the above conditions are met.

9. Resolution regarding Golden Z Club Membership

Proposed by Zonta International Board

The pilot program to transition Golden Z club members into youth members of the sponsoring club will continue for the coming biennium (2026-2028).

Youth members will be counted as youth members of the club, area, and district for statistical purposes, but not for credentials or voting.

The sponsoring club will be responsible for entering the youth member information in the Zonta International database in the same manner as other club members.

No dues will be paid at any level of Zonta International during the pilot, but Golden Z clubs may collect dues or fees for services provided by the Golden Z club to its members.

Youth members will have access to Zonta International website information in the same manner as Zonta club members as determined by the Zonta International Board, as appropriate.

Youth members will be allowed to participate, without voting rights, in club activities, area meetings, district conferences, and Zonta International convention, events, and programs.

Youth members are eligible for Zonta scholarships and awards at all levels.

Youth members could serve on committees at all levels of Zonta.

Prior to graduation, the sponsoring club or a member of the Zonta International headquarters team will send the youth member an invitation to join a Zonta club.

Only youth members that are of legal age will appear in the website directory.

Rationale

The 2024 Convention voted to initiate a pilot program whereby members of Golden Z Clubs would be counted as youth members of their sponsoring club and, for statistical purposes, be counted as members of Zonta International. Zonta International and sponsoring clubs desire to enhance the experience of Golden Z club members and promote continuing in Zonta membership. Allowing the Golden Z club members to become youth members of sponsoring clubs will accomplish these goals by:

Passed
998/60

- i. giving Golden Z club members access to information and tools on the Zonta International website;
- ii. making the Golden Z club members feel more a part of the organization instead of a club service project;
- iii. keeping in contact with the youth members to assist in a smooth transition of membership from a Golden Z club to a young professional or other member in a Zonta club;
- iv. having contact information to communicate with youth members about future events and to provide information about opportunities as they arise, such as participation in CSW and NGO CSW or Zonta sponsored events. Allowing the Golden Z club members to become youth members of the sponsoring clubs will also give the Golden Z club members an opportunity to develop valuable leadership and interpersonal skills. Instituting this pilot program is in direct line with the strategic plan by promoting membership to younger generations and establishing a succession path for the future of Zonta.

The uptake of this scheme has been slow, and limited data is available to assess its success or otherwise. Accordingly, the Zonta International Board is proposing this pilot program be extended for another biennium to allow more time for student members to be registered.

The pilot program in this current biennium also encouraged Zonta clubs to invite youth members to join Zonta International prior to graduation. No data is available on whether this has occurred. Clubs which sponsor a youth club will be further encouraged to register the Golden Z club members.

Data on the success of the pilot will be presented to the 2028 Convention.

Recommended for adoption by the Zonta International Board.
